OCTOBER NEWS 2009 Events and advance notice

Friday October 23rd 2009

Local History on Film from the Lincolnshire Film Archive

Tickets £5, doors open 7pm. All proceeds to the theatre refurbishment. This should be a very interesting (and nostalgic) evening.

Friday 18th December 2009

Christmas Social at the Playhouse.

£14 per head – Christmas buffet provided by Key Catering.
Booking forms and details about entertainment will go out soon.

Productions and Auditions

“The Holly and the Ivy” is now in rehearsal. Performance dates are 2nd to 5th December. Booking will be available from the end of October.

Audition for “The Accrington Pals” will take place on the 9th December – details to follow. The director will be Sue Robey.

Seat sponsorship

Anyone who would like to sponsor a seat in the auditorium at a cost of £25 per seat should contact Nancy Warnes. The seat sponsors for the existing seats downstairs will have their names entered on a board to be displayed in the revamped auditorium.

Please contact Nancy Warnes on keithandnancy@tiscali.co.uk or on 01529-300362

Final reminder Friday 16th October

Liminal State Theatre from Lincoln present “The Lover” by Harold Pinter. This is a Black Comedy, in one act. Commencing 8pm. Tickets £7 (£6 concession) and £6 (£5 concession)
